

Pulsing Light Therapy is used to stabilize a chiropractic adjustment in the nervous system and have the reduction of the subluxation stabilized. We also use it in allergy desensitizing to re-program the nervous system to accept allergens as normal.